Our Organization

Friends of Residents in Long Term Care is a non-profit, charitable organization committed to advancing quality of life in North Carolina's long-term care facilities. We advocate for changes in public policy, long-term care residents and their families, and help build public awareness in North Carolina about aging, disability and long term services and supports.

Our Mission: to advance the quality of life for the 100,000+ frail elderly and disabled people living in residential care in North Carolina. Our motto is "Quality Care, No Matter Where!"
